

I am strongly opposed to any changes to the no call list and how it functions in Wisconsin. Without it as is we are harassed by everyone trying to sell something which does not lead to good business practices.